1810 THE PUBLIC,-The undersigned hereby cautions the public against buying or using a Patent Right for machinery for cutting the Screws upon the rails, &c., of bedsteads, granted to Spencer Lewis, April 9th, 1850, as the same was procured by fraud, and has been adjudged by the Cemmissiones of Patents for the United States, to Gross and Campbell, of Tiffin, Ohio.

The undersigned is the only authorized Agent of said Gross and Campbell for the sale of the Rights in said machinery in the State of Indiana, and will prosecute any infringement upon the same by sale, using, or otherwise.

For the information of the public, he herein sets forth the decision of the Commissioner of Patents: of the Commissioner of Patents:
"Spencer Lewis vs. Gross & Campbell —Interference of said Gross & Campbell's application with a Patent, granted to said Spencer Lewis, April 9th, 1550, for improvements in machinery for cutting Screws on rails, &c., of Beadsteads, before the Commissioner of Patents.

Patents:—
"After careful examination of the testimony in the above entitled case, priority of invention is decided in favor of said Gross and Campbell; the said Gross joint inventor with the said Campbell, of the machine claimed by them, having invented the part in controtroversy prior to the invention or production of the same by said Lewis.
